

Photo: Rachel Bourne

The Cuisine de France/Spar car was unstoppable at Anglesey

Birthday boy heads Fun Cup squad to fine win

The Cuisine de France/Spar team secured victory in last weekend's Fun Cup event held at the Anglesey circuit.

The squad of Ian Connell, Marc Connell and Franck Pelle took a commanding win at the north Wales circuit, finishing almost a minute clear of the Team Ram car crewed by Richard Ince, Mark Owen and Austin Reynolds.

The Track Torque team of Neil Primrose, Tim Hartland and Nick Jarvis was third after being handed a stop and go penalty for a jumped start.

Ian Connell, who also celebrated his birthday, was helped to victory when the Happy Racing entry in the hands of Max Hunter crashed out of the lead at Rocket with brake problems.

Results

1 Cuisine de France/Spar (Ian Connell, Marc Connell, Franck Pelle) 250 laps in 6h 01m 17.301s (64.35mph); 2 Team Ram (Richard Ince, Mark Owen, Austin Reynolds) + 55.310s; 3 Track Torque (Neil Primrose, Tim Hartland, Nick Jarvis); 4 CreditCrunchRacing (Dominic Jackson, Tim Wheeldon, Nigel Griffiths); 5 JPR Motorsport; 6 Track Torque 1 (John Chamberts, Alex Ashby, David Webb). Fastest lap: Team Ram 1m 21.952s (68.17mph). Class winners: Cuisine de France/Spar and CreditCrunchRacing. Starters: 24.